Academic Misconduct Other
- Fraudulent behaviour relating to an assessment e.g. falsifying a medical certificate for assessment extensions

Cheating
- Acting dishonestly or unfairly in order to gain an advantage e.g. contracted someone else to do the work

Data Falsification
- Fabricating or altering results so that the research is not accurately represented

Marking/Invigilator Encounters

Plagiarism
- Inadequate acknowledgment of sources e.g. copying, using creative works, self-plagiarism

Collusion
- Inappropriate collaboration related to an assessment task

Probable Intent
- Article畅通: a) A student enrolled in:
- b) in all other cases:
  - i. has not yet successfully completed the designated unit (or appropriate alternative); or
  - ii. has completed fewer than 50 credit points of study at Curtin; or
  - iii. is currently enrolled in an enabling program.

New to Curtin student
- A student enrolled in:
  - a) a Higher Degree by Research course prior to the successful attainment of candidacy; or
  - b) in all other cases:
    - i. has not yet successfully completed the designated unit (or appropriate alternative); or
    - ii. has completed fewer than 50 credit points of study at Curtin; or
    - iii. is currently enrolled in an enabling program.

For further information: SDAO@curtin.edu.au; or AIP@curtin.edu.au

Lodge Case via Dixon Webform

Follow Statute 10 and the Academic Misconduct Rules Process

Follow the Management of Academic Warnings for New to Curtin Students Procedure

Provide guidance and educational support. Consider providing an opportunity to correct the issue and resubmit.

http://registrar.curtin.edu.au